Today's Scripture

Numbers 11:25-29
James 5:1-6
Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Our earthly wealth cannot endure.

Saint James tells us that our earthly wealth cannot endure. It will eventually end up on the trash heap along with everything else we possess. The only things that are truly eternal are love and virtue and faith in God.

We are reminded by the second reading that we have a solemn obligation to work for justice in this world. God expects us to help the poor with the blessings that he has bestowed upon us. That is why he gave us those blessings in the first place!

A Training is scheduled in the use of our AEDs (Automatic Electronic Defibrillators) on Thursday, October 4 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center Library. Anyone interested in learning how to operate these life-saving devices is welcome to attend, but must let the parish office know in advance. Please call 733-1477 as soon as possible to put your name on that list.

First Friday Holy Hour

Our First Friday Holy Hour will take place on October 5 at 7:00 PM in the Church. All are invited to spend some quiet time in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please consider giving your body, mind and spirit this opportunity for contemplation, healing, and peace! It is sponsored by our Church's members of the Third Order of Lay Carmelites.

Make a Rosary

Tony Spisso will be leading a class in how to make a set of Rosary Beads, to which anyone is invited. It will take place on Saturday, October 6 at 9:00 AM in the Parish Center. Afterward there will be an opportunity to say the Rosary together. If you're interested, please call the office and let them know — 733-1477.

Blessings on 60 Years!

Two couples, both long-time parishioners at Our Lady of the Assumption Church, are each celebrating 60 years of marriage. We ask God's continued blessings on Loretta and Tony Alteio — September 27th, and Celia and Sean Moriarty — October 4th. When we reflect upon how many couples in this parish are celebrating special anniversaries just this year, it is pretty awesome. Thanks be to God!

Called to be Holy

Save the date for a Day of Reflection at St. Paul's in Bulleville that will take place on Saturday, October 20. The day, entitled "Called to be Holy" and led by Pat Davies, begins with sign-in and refreshments at 8:45-9:00 AM, and continues through 2:00 PM. Please bring a bag lunch for yourself. There is no cost to participate. Free will donations will be accepted.

Special Service ~ Sat., Nov. 3

Save the date of Saturday, November 3 for a Morning of Prayer, Song and Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, right here at Our Lady of the Assumption. Our special guest will be Margaret Ellen Burke, S.C., and it will be followed by food and fellowship immediately afterward, in the Parish Center. Registration will begin next week.

You're Invited!

OLA's annual Dinner Dance — a holiday party — is on Friday, November 9 at The Eagle's. Tickets are $50 per person; hot/cold hors d'oeuvres, complete dinner with dessert, dancing to our favorite DJ. Cocktail hour begins at 6:00 PM. Tickets are available after Mass or from the Church Office.
