*If we profess that Jesus is Lord,
we will be saved.*

We are called to profess our faith in God. The word "faith" means that we trust in someone else. We believe in others and place our hope in them. Saint Paul states that if we believe in our hearts, we are justified. This means that we are at peace with God, for we have accepted the peace and forgiveness that he offers. Paul thought of salvation as something that occurs on the last day. We must live our faith if we expect to be saved in our final judgment.

Lent is a time to ask two questions: What do I really believe and what do I really express with my life? This is a time to transform both our hearts and our lives.

Our Jewish Roots

You are cordially invited to join us for a special program on Wednesday, April 10 from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM. Guest speaker, Rabbi Marcus Rubenstein of Temple Sinai in Middletown, will share with us the history and rituals of Passover and the Seder Meal. The evening is hosted by Religious Education, and refreshments will be provided after Rabbi's talk. For more information, see Chris Herschel or call the R.E. Office at 733-1518.

As Scripture says, "Anyone who believes in him will never be put to shame. For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile — the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him." Romans 10:11-12
