*Those who follow Jesus should be one,
 one with him and the Father,
 and one with each other.*

This is logical, for if we are truly disciples of Jesus, then we would live in his love and be bound to him and to each other with as intimate a bond as that which unites Jesus with the Father. Remember that the Gospel of John redefines the word "glory". It is not magnificence or prestige; it is the outpouring of love. We are called to live in that love in this world and the next.

Renegades Baseball Update

Due to a number of scheduling conflicts, OLA will not be going to a Hudson Valley Renegades baseball game this season. We look forward to having a great picnic and night out at Dutchess Stadium in 2020!

7th Sunday of Easter Background on the Gospel John 17:20-26

On the seventh Sunday of Easter, we always read from the 17th chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter of John's Gospel comes at the conclusion of Jesus' Farewell Discourse delivered to the disciples at the Last Supper. The whole of this chapter is a prayer of Jesus, commending himself to the Father and expressing his care and concern for his disciples. At the end of this prayer, Jesus and his disciples depart for the garden, and Jesus is arrested.

Several important themes appear in this prayer of Jesus. First, Jesus' prayer reaffirms the complete union between Jesus and the Father. Throughout John's Gospel, Jesus has been presented as the one who pre-existed with the Father and as the one sent by the Father to do his work on earth. In today's reading, we hear Jesus ask that the unity he experiences with the Father be extended to all who believe in him. He prays that we be one with each other, with him, and with the Father. We are reminded that Christ is the source of Christian unity. Through Christ, we are united with one another and with God our Father.

Belief is a major theme in the Gospel of John. It begins in the prologue and continues in the response to Jesus' signs. Belief is the reason Jesus performs signs (2:11, 4:53, 6:69, 9:38) and the reason signs have been recorded in the Gospel (20:30-31). Here Jesus prays not only for those who believe in him but for all who will come to believe in him. And he prays that the love of the Father in him may also be in all who believe so that Jesus might be in them as well.
