Today's Scripture

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:19a, 11-13a
Romans 9:1-5
Matthew 14:22-33

We are called to place our trust in God. We depend upon him for everything that we have and are.

In 1 Kings God appeared to his people with fire and wind and earthquakes. One would expect that he would use the same means to express his presence to Elijah. Instead God appears to the prophet in the whispering sound of the breeze.

The Lord was revealing to Elijah that he does not always work in miraculous ways. Sometimes God works in humble, simple, everyday ways.

People always flock to events that seem to have a miraculous tenor to them. We should be ready to recognize God's presence in our everyday lives as much as we do in those tremendous events.

The Year of Vocations

"We must never be presumptuous of our own strength." ~ Ven. Mary Angeline Teresa McCrory. As the turbulent seas caused fear in the heart of the disciples, so the world tries to do with us. Pride, in one's own abilities, will always lead to the ruin. Yet, even in the chaos of the world Jesus comes to us, because he is our strong foundation. Is God calling you to grow in holiness as a Carmelite Friar? Contact the Vocation Office at 845-344-2225 or email: vocations@carmelites.com.
