Romans 13:8-10 St. Paul said, "Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law."

There's another e-mail scam circulating That is supposedly from Fr. Paul through his g-mail account, asking for procurement of gift cards. PLEASE DO NOT RESPOND TO ANY E-MAIL LIKE THIS! Fr. Paul would never make such a request, especially in this manner.

Today's Scripture

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ezekiel 33:7-9
 Romans 13:8-10
 Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus is the sign of God's love for us. As such he is the source of peace between us and God. Jesus is the Sacrament of God's fidelity and mercy.

The greatest commandment is to love the Lord with all one's heart. Soul. And strength and to love one's neighbor as oneself.

Our Christian obligation to one another: All of God's precepts of the law are summed up in that one great commandment. This commandment, in fact, goes far beyond the others, for it is not enough to avoid doing evil toward others. One must actually seek what is good for them. We must avoid omission, as well as those of commission.

The Year of Vocations

"What joy for the soul to learn that God never abandons it even in mortal sin ..." ~ St. John of the Cross. Even when our hearts succumb to the idols we've embraced God still gazes upon us with love. Carmelites know this gaze can be found in each heart of the baptized, so our vocation is to aid those in that journey of discovering the Lord's loving gaze. Is God calling you to grow in holiness as a Carmelite Friar? Contact the Vocation Office at 845-344-2225 or email: vocations@carmelites.com.

Religious Education

The new 2020/2021 term begins on Tuesday, September 15. Classes run from 6:30 to 7:30 PM. There is still time to enroll but please do so as soon as possible. If you have any questions, contact R.E.Coordinator, Christine Herschel, at 733-1518 or assumption6364@gmail.com.

Today's Gospel Reading

Matthew 18:15-20 "If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector. "Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. "Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them."
