Jesus is the healer of our soul and of our body.

When Jesus healed many in the village of Capernaum, he refused to allow the demons to speak because they knew him. They would have proclaimed that Jesus was the Messiah, and Jesus knew that the crowd would have misunderstood his role.

He did not intend to be seen as a political leader or a miracle worker. He was there to heal hearts and to call people to conversion. He was not the Messiah whom they wanted, but rather he was the Messiah whom they needed.

This is why, after he had prayed in a deserted desert for a while, he goes to the other villages to proclaim the Word of God.

Mass Attendance/Collection

At Mass January 30 & 31: 80
 Weekend's Collection: $1,203.00

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges all the Faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily life by performing acts of fasting and abstinence.

“FASTING” requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 and continues to oblige until age 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

ABSTINENCE prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and continues to oblige
