Today's Scripture

16th Sunday
 in Ordinary Time

2 Kings 4:42-44 Ephesians 4:1-6
 John 6:1-15

*Jesus was a great prophet.
 He truly proclaimed in word and deed
 the greatness of the mercy and love of God.*

The multiplication of loaves and fishes has sometimes been described as being a social miracle; that Jesus shared all the food he had and people were impressed by his generosity and they shared all the food they had. This is a beautiful story, but it is not what is found in today's Gospel account.

This is a nature miracle—one in which Jesus changes the rules of nature. This idea is reinforced by the fact that Jesus goes out for a walk on the Sea of Galilee in the next passage of the Gospel and he then calms a storm—both of which are also nature miracles. Miracles can and do happen, both in Jesus' day and in our own.

Unity in the Body of Christ — I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. Ephesians 4:1-6
