THE WORD

Today's Scripture

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20
James 3:16-4:3
Mark 9:30-37

God has not called us to be condemned or to be slaves; he has invited us into the dignity of the children of a loving Father who share in his glory.

Saint James says that bad things happen when we allow our passions to run amok. We end up using others as objects for our own gratification.

We end up living miserable lives of jealousy and resentment.

If, on the other hand, we live with a spirit of peace, gentleness, mercy, etc., then we will be able to live with others as God intended us to do.

We will not be worried that we are somehow missing out on something, but rather we will be willing to share everything that we have with those who need our help.

Power, Privilege & Race

Do you want to address racism but don't know where to begin?

Faith & Racial Equity: Exploring Power and Privilege is an 8-session program that awakens a realization of how the economic systems, public policies, cultural norms and hidden biases empower some and oppress others.

The first half of the program lays the groundwork for understanding and identifying racial privilege. Sessions 5-8 take a deeper dive into specific issues related to power and privilege, including affirmative action, the school-to-prison pipeline, disparities within the criminal justice system, and biases in media representation. As with all JustFaith Ministries' programs, participants will explore how their faith should inform their response to their learning, as well as discern action steps for working toward racial equity in their own communities.

This program will be offered free of charge via ZOOM starting at 6:30 PM Tuesday, October 5, and continuing every other week thereafter. The co-facilitators are Peter Adams and Julie Laurenzi, who have completed the program.

Contact Lourdes Eyer (845-664-0171) or Pat Davies (704-726-1082) for registration guidance and information. To learn more, visit: <https://justfaith.org/faith-and-racial-equity>

When Receiving the Eucharist . . .

If you choose to receive the body of Christ on the tongue, rather than in the hand, please go to the end of the Communion line. The Priest or Eucharistic Minister who is giving out Communion must sanitize their hands after giving it to each person who receives on the tongue, according to Covid protocol and an Archdiocesan mandate.
