Today's Scripture Readings

4th Sunday of Lent

Joshua 5:9a, 10-12
2 Corinthians 5:17-21
Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

We are all called to abandon our sinful ways and return to our merciful Father.

Saint Paul says that Jesus became sin, meaning that he took the curse of our sins upon himself. He put the old ways (of selfishness and alienation) to death. Now we have to choose life and love.

There are a number of passages in the New Testament that present the idea that we are a new creation. When Jesus is buried in the Gospel of John, he is buried in a garden (signifying the garden of Eden).

He breathes on his disciples after the resurrection (just as God breathed into the mud to create Adam). The Spirit is a great wind on the Day of Pentecost (just as the Spirit hovered over the waters on the day of creation).

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun! And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!" For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin, so that we could be made right with God through Christ.
