Today's Scripture Readings

THE WORD OF GOD

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Luke 9, 51-62

Jesus speaks of himself as being the bread that will nourish us and satisfy our most profound need.

What is it that God really has promised us? Will God always make things work out perfectly, or will God at times allow things to be difficult and messy? Will God always be there for us, and if so, what does that mean in everyday terms? Do I at times feel that God is not upholding his part of the bargain?

Bereavement Group

About a dozen people participated in the recent Bereavement Group sessions, culminating with a pot luck meal on June 15. The 7 sessions were led by Gary Texter and Bridget Auer. During the last session, participants were treated to a closing talk by Sr. Margaret Ellen Burke, S.C.

Feedback from those who attended has been very positive. The group will gather again for one session in the early Fall to check in with each other and share how life has been going for them since June. It is anticipated that a new group will be forming in the Fall.
