The Brown Scapular

The Brown Scapular has its roots in the tradition of the Order of the Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel, the Carmelite Order. Carmelites see the Scapular as the sign of Mary's motherly protection. It also represents a commitment to follow Jesus, like Mary, the perfect model of the disciples of Christ. This commitment finds its origin in the Sacrament of Baptism by which we become children of God.

The Brown Scapular brings us into the community of Carmel, a community of religious men and women which has existed in the church for over eight centuries. It calls us to live out the Carmelite ideal of intimate friendship with God in prayer. It also reminds us of the example of the Saints of Carmel, with whom we can establish a close bond as sisters and brothers to one another. It is an expression of our belief that we will meet God in eternal life, aided by the intercession and prayer of Mary.

To receive the Brown Scapular is to become part of the fraternity of the Order of the Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel and so it is an instrument of living the Christian life. Together we are called to live as sisters and brothers of Mary as she leads us to Jesus: the Way, the Truth, and the Life. We are also called to deepen the virtues of faith, hope, and love in the service of God and of one another, and to pray with all our hearts, as Mary did, to fulfill God's will in our daily lives.

The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church

By the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

5. The Lord accompanies us in many ways, but none as profound as when we encounter him in the Eucharist. On our journey toward eternal life, Christ nourishes us with his very self. Once, when told by someone that she no longer saw the point of going to daily Mass, the Servant of God Dorothy Day reflected: "We go eat of this fruit of the tree of life because Jesus told us to. . . He took upon himself our humanity that we might share in his divinity. We are nourished by his flesh that we may grow to be other Christs. I believe this literally, just as I believe the child is nourished by the milk from his mother's breast."

6. Yet, we also know that he is present to us in a way that binds us together as one body, which we proclaim by our "Amen" in responding to the invitation: The Body of Christ. Again, we call on the words of the beloved Polish pope: "For this presence to be properly proclaimed and lived, it is not enough that the disciples of Christ pray individually and commemorate the death and Resurrection of Christ inwardly, in the secrecy of their hearts. Those who have received the grace of baptism are not saved as individuals alone, but as members of the Mystical Body, having become part of the People of God."

7. As we continue to welcome people back to the communal celebration of the Mass, it must be acknowledged that no document can exhaust the mystery of the gift of the Eucharist. Nevertheless, at various times, it is desirable to reflect on certain facets of the mystery that are relevant to contemporary issues and challenges and that help us to appreciate more deeply the gift of grace that has been given to us. At this particular moment for the Church in the United States, with its many challenges, we would like to reflect on Christ's gift of himself in the Eucharist and our response to that gift.

Look for the next segment of this document in next week's bulletin.
